KMG Move It-32 incident

NAFLIC has been made aware of an incident which took place at the end of April at a fair in Genk, Belgium.

The incident involved a KMG Move It-32 attraction. According to reports, while the device was in motion the pods with passengers in suddenly hit the metal platform. For what is currently an unknown reason the lower seats were thrown against the platform. All occupants had to be released manually and there were no reports of injuries.

NAFLIC has contacted KMG for more details on the incident but at the time of writing the company was unable to provide further information with investigations still on-going.
